

Invitation to the Brownbag Series 2018

Environmental Justice in Governing Natural Resources under Globalization

Organized by the Research Cluster
Governing Telecoupled Resource Systems for Environmental Justice

(<http://www.geography.unibe.ch/telegov>)

Programme

Presenter	Title	Date and Time	Room
Elke Kellner	Polycentric climate governance: the case of multi-purpose reservoirs in Switzerland	Fri, 08.06.2018 12.15-13.15h	302 (GIUB)
Maaret Jokela-Pansini	Closing spaces of women's environmental human rights activism in Honduras	Wed, 13.06.2018 12.15-13.15h	302 (GIUB)
Gabriela Debrunner	Governance of housing densification in the context of growing land scarcity in cities	Thu, 09.08.2018 12.15-13.15h	Room 116, Mittelstrasse 43
Desiree Daniel	The spatiality of power	Wed, 15.08.2018 12.15-13.15h	Room 116, Mittelstrasse 43
Timothy Adams	Identifying avenues for researching environmental justice in practice: The case of sugarcane outgrower schemes in Malawi	Wed, 29.08.2018 12.15-13.15h	Room 116, Mittelstrasse 43
Christoph Oberlack	Governance in telecoupled systems: the case of Thilawa Special Economic Zone, Myanmar	Wed, 26.09.2018 12.15-13.15h	302 (GIUB)
Deniz Ay	Mitigating risk in the risk society: An unconventional megaproject for the aspiring 'Global City' Istanbul	Wed, 17.10.2018 12.15-13.15h	302 (GIUB)
Jorge Llopis	Shifting capabilities: human well-being under telecoupling in north-east Madagascar	Wed, 31.10.2018 12.15-13.15h	302 (GIUB)
Graziano Ceddia	Wealth concentration, FDI and agricultural expansion in Latin America	Wed, 14.11.2018 12.15-13.15h	302 (GIUB)
Elena Zepharovich	Perceptions on social inequality in the context of deforestation	Wed, 28.11.2018 12.15-13.15h	302 (GIUB)
Béla Filep & Kaspar Hurni	National land, minorities, and land grabbing: mapping and characterizing shifts in land ownership in Eastern Europe	Tue, 11.12.2018 12.15-13.15h	302 (GIUB)
Sebastien Boillat	From environmental to social-ecological justice? Connecting the thematic scopes of justice in human-environment interactions	Wed, 19.12.2018 12.15-13.15h	302 (GIUB)

Objectives:

The two main objectives of this brownbag series are to:

- [1] Provide an interactive space for generating debate and feedback about ongoing research (e.g. draft papers) of young and established researchers at the University of Bern working on themes related to environmental justice in governing natural resources under globalization, power asymmetries and transformations thereof, land rights and human rights.
- [2] Strengthen the community of researchers at the University of Bern working on the themes named above.

Interested? All researchers affiliated with the University of Bern are invited to attend the brownbag seminars. It is possible to attend all or some of the brownbags.

Coordinator: Dr. Christoph Oberlack, for the research cluster "Governing Telecoupled Resource Systems for Environmental Justice" (christoph.oberlack@giub.unibe.ch).